

EXHIBITOR CONTRACT Forensic Medical InvestigationSM

This is a three-day course presented by Forensic Medical InvestigationSM under the direction of Mary H. Dudley, MD. This seminar is designed as a comprehensive review of concepts and principles in forensic science and clinical forensic medicine and medico-legal death investigations. Anticipated daily attendance 50–85. Show days are the first two days (Thursday & Friday) from 7: 00 – 4:00pm with scheduled breaks.

Exhibitor assumes entire responsibility and thereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend and save Forensic Medical InvestigationSM, Mary H. Dudley, MD, and the hotel, hospital or meeting facility and their employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses, and damages to person or property, government charges or fines and attorney's fees arising out of or caused by exhibitor's installation, removal, maintenance, or occupancy or use of the exhibition premises or a part, thereof, excluding any such liability caused by the sole negligence of the hotel, hospital or meeting facility or their employees and agents. In addition, Exhibitor acknowledges that the sponsors do not maintain insurance covering exhibitors' property and that it is the sole responsibility of exhibitor to obtain business interruption and property damage insurance covering such losses by exhibitor. The exhibitor shall obtain and keep in force during the term of installation and use of the exhibit premises the policies of Comprehensive General Liability and Contractual Liability Insurance, insurance and specifically referring to contractual liability set forth in the foregoing paragraph, thereof, in the amount not less than $250,000 combined single limit for personal injury and property damage. The Internal Revenue Service issued Regulation 1,513.3 regarding taxability of exhibitor's sales activity at conventions and trade shows. Under this regulation these activities are allowed by 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(6) organizations as a related activity and therefore not taxable. The regulation does not exempt exhibitor sales from sales tax and thus any sales activity by an exhibitor must be reported to the appropriate taxing authority by the exhibitor.

In accordance with the Standards of Commercial Support for Continuing Medical Education of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, all promotional commercial products will be confined to the exhibit area.
